*With Honors (HPA 3.4–4.0)
ABOUT OUR VALEDICTORY SPEAKERS

Valedictory speakers at Hawai‘i Pacific University are selected on the basis of grade point average and service to the community.

TONI-ANNE MARIE MANNINO

Toni-Anne Mannino spent her childhood in a single parent family in New York, but she attended three high schools in various states as her mother pursued a demanding traveling career. She continued her traveling education with her U.S. Marine Corps spouse. She attended four colleges and attained an Associate of Science degree in Business Administration before arriving to Hawai‘i Pacific University in 2009.

Mannino began studying toward a bachelor’s degree through the Military Campus Programs Kāne‘ohe Marine Corps Base Education Center. She earned A grades and was on the HPU Dean’s List every term. She is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa and Alpha Chi honors societies.

She is a life-long community volunteer. In Hawai‘i, she serves as an administrative volunteer for Wounded Warrior Detachment Hawai‘i. She also helped train dogs for Hawaii Fido, an organization that provides service dogs to mobility-challenged individuals, and worked with Therapeutic Horsemanship of Hawai‘i, an organization that provides horseback riding to Hawai‘i’s special needs population. She plans to continue her spirit of volunteerism throughout her life.

Mannino will receive a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with Summa Cum Laude honors.

LAUREN FERRIER POLLOCK

Lauren Pollock was working as a pathology assistant and phlebotomist at a Massachusetts hospital when she was inspired by the nurses’ interaction and compassion with their patients. She already had a bachelor’s degree in Zoology from Connecticut College, but decided to return to school to follow her new calling to a nursing career.

Pollock has been very active in volunteer activities even while maintaining a high grade point average in the Hawai‘i Pacific University Nursing Program. She was co-chair for the HPU Pinning Committee, class representative for the Student Nursing Association, and a member of Alpha Chi and Sigma Theta Tau International, the nursing honors society. She is active in the Hawai‘i community, volunteering for children’s inpatient facility Kūlana Mālama, the Hawaii Food Bank, and the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure. She also works as a home health care assistant.

Pollock is married to a Navy Corpsman who was deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan while she pursued her bachelor’s degree at HPU. She plans to remain on O‘ahu with a goal of obtaining a nursing position at a local medical center.

Pollock will receive a Bachelor of Science in Nursing with Magna Cum Laude honors.

MATTHEW THOMAS WILSON

Matt Wilson already had graduated with Distinction with a master’s degree in Business Administration from Harvard Business School, before he entered the Hawai‘i Pacific University Master of Arts in Communication degree program. Wilson is once again graduating with honors for his second master’s degree.

As a partner in Pacific Bridge Holdings, LLC, Wilson works with Hawai‘i business leaders and entrepreneurs in strategic business development for automotive, real estate and other industries. He is active in the community as a board member for a charter school, and as an advisor to the pastor of New Hope Hawai‘i Kai. He is a board member for an initiative to build an adaptive sports center specializing in water sports for special needs children. He also was a member of HPU’s MACOM Club.

He formerly was an intelligence officer in the U.S. Navy for six years and led teams of intelligence analysts covering Asia and the Middle East. He lives in Hawai‘i Kai with his wife and infant son.

Wilson describes himself as a life-long learner. Tonight he is receiving a Master of Arts in Communication degree, with Distinction.

THE PAUL C.T. LOO DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

In tribute to Hawai‘i Pacific University co-founder Paul C.T. Loo, the University established an award program in 2001. The Paul C.T. Loo Distinguished Alumni Award recognizes exceptional HPU graduates for outstanding service to the University, professional and community accomplishments, and sharing Loo’s belief that “an HPU education is an instrument for helping others.”
Honors Regalia

Graduating students wearing honors regalia are members of local, national, or international honor societies. Honor cords, pins, or medallions identify students as members of one of the societies or programs listed below:

- Presidential Scholarship Program: Blue and green cords. Hawai‘i high school graduates who were awarded a 100% tuition waiver from the HPU President’s Scholarship Program for High School Students.

- Alpha Chi: Double gold cords. The top honor society at HPU, membership is limited to advanced junior and senior students who have an honors point average (HPA) of 3.6.

- Alpha Epsilon Delta: Red and violet cords. The national premedical honor society; membership is open to students with at least a 3.3 grade point average (GPA) and a major interest in medicine.

- Alpha Lambda Delta: Red, gold, and white cords. Membership limited to students in their first year at HPU who have achieved a GPA of 3.5.

- Alpha Sigma Lambda: Maroon and gold cords. Membership limited to undergraduate students at least 27 years of age who have a GPA of 3.2.

- Upsilon Pi Epsilon: Maroon and white cords and lapel pin. Membership limited to students in the study of information systems, computer science, and computer information systems who have a GPA of 3.5 (or a 3.0 GPA for undergraduate students).

- University Scholar: Gold-ribboned honors medallion signifies a University Scholar who has maintained at least a 3.4 HPA in addition to completing nine honors-designated courses in their degree program.

Honors and Degree Conferral

Honors and degrees for this ceremony are calculated based upon grades earned prior to the current term. Honors and degrees are officially conferred when the University Registrar posts the degree to the student’s official transcript. Students graduating with HPU honors are wearing an honors sash as follows: Associate degree students graduating With Honors (with overall 3.4 HPA) receive a blue sash; Bachelor degree students graduating Cum Laude (3.4 – 3.69 HPA), Magna Cum Laude (3.7 – 3.89 HPA), or Summa Cum Laude (3.9 – 4.00 HPA) receive a green sash; Master degree students graduating With Distinction (3.7 HPA) receive a gold sash.
Alma Mater

Amid the towers of the city – grows a University tried and true.
‘Ohana, warm and friendly, bloom in colors green and blue.

Hawai‘i Pacific, your spirit is grand.
We’ll flaunt your colors – from this fragrant land.

Our warriors are victorious. They catch the wave and sun,
and carry them to all of us – to strengthen us as one.

Hawai‘i Pacific, your spirit is grand.
We’ll flaunt your colors – from this fragrant land.

STAR-SPANGLED BANNER
(The Defense of Fort McHenry)

September 20, 1814

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

HAWAI‘I PONO‘Ī

Hawai‘i pono‘ī,
Nānā i kou mō‘ī,
Ka lani ali‘i,
Ke ali‘i.

People of Hawai‘i,
Look to your king,
The royal chief,
The chief.

Makua lani e,
Kamehameha e,
Nā kāua e pale
Me ka ihe.

Royal father,
Kamehameha,
We shall defend
With spears.

Hawai‘i pono‘ī,
Nānā i nā ali‘i,
Nā pua muli kou,
Nā pōki‘i.

People of Hawai‘i,
Look to your chiefs,
The children after you,
The young.

Hawai‘i pono‘ī,
E ka lāhui e,
‘O kāu hana nui
E ui e.

People of Hawai‘i,
O nation,
Your great duty
Strive.

Aloha ‘Oe

We leave you tonight with one of the most famous Hawaiian songs, Aloha ‘Oe, a song of love and farewell. This song is dedicated to all of our graduates who will become our ambassadors of aloha around the world.

Proudly the rain on the cliffs
- Creeps into the forest
- Seeking the buds
- And miniature lehua flowers of the uplands.

Farewell to you, farewell to you,
- O fragrance in the blue depths.
- One fond embrace, I leave
- To meet again.

Sweet memories come
- Sound softly in my heart.
- You are my beloved sweetheart
- Felt within.

I understand the beauty
- Of rose blossoms at Mauna-wili.
- There the birds delight,
- Alert the beauty of this flower.
Senior Class Gift from the Class of 2012

Congratulations to the graduating Class of 2012!

Before moving on to the next phase of their lives, Hawai‘i Pacific University graduates are celebrating their important milestones and creating the Class of 2012 legacy through the Senior Class Gift.

The Senior Class Gift is a University tradition established by the Class of 2000 to commemorate academic accomplishment and show HPU pride. Members of each class have the opportunity to leave their mark on campus and help support the next generation of HPU students.

Funds from this program enrich the student experience and have an immediate and lasting impact, enriching academic programs and student services. Donors of $50 or more receive a limited edition 2012 Senior Class T-shirt and have their names engraved on a plaque that is displayed in the Meader Library at the downtown campus.

Thank you to everyone who has already contributed to the 2012 Senior Class Gift. It is through the generosity of each graduating class, University alumni, parents, and friends that HPU is able to provide the educational excellence that prepares graduates for future success.
