STAR-SPANGLED BANNER
(The Defense of Fort McHenry)
September 20, 1814

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Lyrics by: Francis Scott Key

ALMA MATER

Amid the towers of the city — grows a University tried and true.
‘Ohana, warm and friendly, bloom in colors green and blue.

Hawai’i Pacific, your spirit is grand.
We’ll flaunt your colors — from this fragrant land.

Our warriors are victorious. They catch the wave and sun,
and carry them to all of us — to strengthen us as one.

Hawai’i Pacific, your spirit is grand.
We’ll flaunt your colors — from this fragrant land.

Senior Class Gift from the Class of 2011

Thank you to each member of the class of 2011 who contributed to the Senior Class Gift

The Senior Class Gift is a University tradition. Before moving to the next phase of their lives, members of the Class of 2011 are celebrating and commemorating the Hawai‘i Pacific University experience with a gift to the Senior Class Gift 2011. These funds help finance academic programs and student services. By contributing to this fund, the Class of 2011 leaves its mark on campus. Participants may have their names displayed on a permanent plaque on campus.

This program provides students the opportunity to establish a lifelong tradition of philanthropy, and leave a legacy for those students who follow. It is through the generosity of each graduating class, University alumni, parents, and friends that Hawai‘i Pacific University is able to provide the educational excellence that prepares graduates for future success.

Congratulations to the Class of 2011 on your achievement! And thank you for your contribution to excellence at Hawai‘i Pacific University. Visit our website location – www.hpu.edu/seniorgift – for more information on making a Senior Class Gift.

Alma Mater

Amid the towers of the city – grows a University tried and true.
'Ohana, warm and friendly, bloom in colors green and blue.

Hawai'i Pacific, your spirit is grand.
We'll flaunt your colors – from this fragrant land.

Our warriors are victorious. They catch the wave and sun,
and carry them to all of us – to strengthen us as one.

Hawai'i Pacific, your spirit is grand.
We'll flaunt your colors – from this fragrant land.

Hawai'i Pono'i

Hawai'i Pono'i,
Look to your king,
The royal chief,
The chief.

Royal father,
Kamehameha,
We shall defend
With spears.

People of Hawai'i,
Look to your chiefs,
The children after you,
The young.

People of Hawai'i,
Look to your king,
The royal chief,
The chief.

People of Hawai'i,
Look to your king,
The royal chief,
The chief.

Star-Spangled Banner
(The Defense of Fort McHenry)

September 20, 1814

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
